A SUNDAY ADVENTURE: SEE FORT MASON IN ACTION

Now's your chance to discover what's really going on down at the Fort. On Sunday, June 26, from 12 noon to 5PM, most of the 50 organizations with offices and studios at Fort Mason Center, as well as the others who use the Fort's premises for activities on a regular basis, will be "At Home," and offering free performances, demonstrations, special exhibits and shows. June 26 is designed to be the ideal time to find out how you can enrich your life by becoming a part of all this—uncovering the amazing diversity of classes, workshops, cultural experiences and special events that crowd the Fort Mason Center calendar each and every month. As columnist Margot Patterson Doss put it, " . . . inside those sturdy functional buildings and piers on San Francisco's spectacular northern waterfront may well be more excitement fomenting than anywhere else in the city . . ."

Theatre, concerts, museums, dance classes—there is indeed at least one and probably more than one activity of interest to every member of the family, so make your trip of discovery a family expedition. In addition to the Fort's packed schedule for the Open House, the San Francisco Arts Festival will be in full swing in Pier 2. There's so much to see and do, we recommend an early start. Refreshments will be available inside the Pier and out, and the Great Meadow will be open for picnicking.

For starters there's the Blue Bear School of Music presenting a recital of their band workshops. It's not often that there's an opportunity to hear these talented groups of musicians whose interests range from rock and new wave to blues and the more traditional jazz. The Center for Educational Telecommunications will be presenting videotapes and slide shows, and Poetry Film Workshop will be showing films. Dancers Workshop and Dance Coalition will be offering dance performances throughout the day and S.F. Theatre Academy will have displays of sets and costumes. Clowns and jugglers will add to the outdoor festivities.

Tai Chi Chuan

If museums and galleries intrigue you, you can preview a design/illustration show by Artists in Print, or a multimedia demonstration by members of the Center for Learning in Retirement at Perception Gallery. There will be other special displays at the African-American Historical and Cultural Society, the Mexican Museum, the S.F. Museum of Modern Art Rental Gallery, Printmakers of the Community College Art Center, and a colorful, entertaining exhibition at the Children's Art Center featuring the creations of future artists ages 2-10. The GGNRA will open up the Maritime Museum Storage Facility, where an unusual collection of artifacts, some from Alcatraz, are on display.

Other groups serving as special hosts are: Greenpeace, the Oceanic Society, Project Tektite (NASA's first undersea lab) and Environmental Traveling Companions who make the wilderness available to the blind and other handicapped individuals. The American Youth Hostel, the Maritime Humanities Center and AM-FM Recycling will have tables with information about their programs and services. The Golden Gate Postcard Club, a group that meets monthly at the Center wil have a special display for your enjoyment. There will be demonstrations of Tai Chi Chuan presented by Fong Ha and his class. The Professional Photographers of S.F. will be sponsoring their annual White Elephant Sale of used photographic equipment in Bldg. C.

Other highlights of the day will be the "Moving Portrait," a mobile sculpture installation involving geometric construction and film projection by Vance Martin and a raffle for all who join Friends of the Fort on this day. Come and visit our membership table in Pier 2 and learn about our membership program which includes discounts to the many events occurring at the Center.

Free shuttle buses will be operating from Crissy Field. Fort Mason Center is located on the #28-19th Ave. bus line and within walking distance of the #30-Stockton, #47-Van Ness, #42-Downtown Loop and the #22-Fillmore.

A map and schedule of the day's events will be available so you won't miss any of the activities. We are looking forward to June 26th and to seeing you here.

Fort Mason Center Staff

S.F. Dancer's Workshop

Dear Friends,

We are considering adding something to the name Fort Mason Center which will enable our name to more accurately reflect what is actually happening in the Center. People have suggested to us that some simple modification in the name would communicate more fully the range of activities and the diverse organizations and individuals who make up this unique community.

We are not considering dropping Fort Mason from the name. Rather, we are thinking along the lines of _____ _____at Fort Mason (fill in the blanks) or Fort Mason Center for the _____ _____ (fill in the blanks).

If you would take a few minutes to think about this and let us know how you feel about this idea we would appreciate it. Furthermore, if you have any ideas about what those additional descriptive words could be, please let us know. Send your suggestions to IDEAS, Fort Mason Center, Bldg A, Marina Blvd. and Buchanan St., San Francisco, CA 94123

Thank you for your cooperation.
